Still developing...

Since I'm starting from scratch again as a ~~developer~~ developer, I thought it fitting to surround this page with baby (and puppy) photos of my kids!

After running a sports facility, working in the film industry and being a commodities floor broker, I'm amazed to find a new, completely different passion.

I still love games & puzzles and can't seem to be the ultimate puzzle to solve. I'll continue to play hard games, write programs and (hopefully) get better at them. And when there only projects (soon?), I'll just then have. Utilitarian, solve projects (soon?), I'll just then have.

Use this heavily navigation bar to check to ~~be able to~~ and to correct.
